

GOOD TO KNOW - COPENHAGEN AND DENMARK

WHY BOOK A CRUISE TO COPENHAGEN AND DENMARK?

Denmark is famous for its food culture, the efficient infrastructure, the oldest monarchy in the world, the Danish design and architecture, and of course: the Danish way of living. The capital, Copenhagen, is a city large enough for every kind of life philosophy, but small enough to bicycle from one end to the other in twenty minutes!

TOP 3 THINGS TO DO

1. Watch the changing of the Royal Guards at Amalienborg Palace at 12:00 noon every day.
2. Taste the world-famous Carlsberg beer at Visit Carlsberg and get an authentic brewery experience.
3. You cannot miss out on Tivoli Gardens, which is considered one of the major sights in Copenhagen!

BEYOND COPENHAGEN

Copenhagen is the capital of Denmark, but don't forget the other eight Danish cruise destinations that all offer an abundance of unique adventures to cruise guests. All Danish cruise destinations are located along the beautiful Danish coastline, right at the doorway to the the Baltic Sea, St. Petersburg, and the Norwegian Fjords.

PLANNING YOUR TRIP!

Denmark is a small and compact country, so you'll find everything close at hand.

Copenhagen Airport is located just a 13-minute train ride from Copenhagen City Centre.

There are three cruise terminals: Ocean Quay, Langelinie and Nordre Toldbod - all close to Copenhagen City Centre. Click here for more information about public transport around Copenhagen and to/from the cruise terminals.
